present an amateur production of

All Together like the Folks of Shields

A Comedy by David Cooke

The play centres around two families in 1970 living next door to each other in typical Tyneside flats. Des and Betty Charlton have the latest furniture – bright and possibly rather vulgar. George and Alvera Armstrong are down on their luck and live in faded fifties drab. The two families have different approaches to their lives and frequently come into conflict but, by the end of the play, they are all together.

Tuesday 17th October – Saturday 21st October 2017

Ticket Price(s): £8.00 (Tuesday) - £9.00 (Wednesday to Saturday)

Aladdin

Our Next Production: Aladdin [19th - 27th January 2018]

A Pantomime by Tom Whalley

Abanazar, an evil magician, has discovered a way to become Master of the Universe. All he needs is an enchanted oil lamp hidden away for many years in a lost cave. Meanwhile, in the village of 'Won Long Poo', Aladdin dreams of marrying the beautiful Princess Jasmine. Could a penniless laundry boy ever hope to win the love of a Royal Princess? Join us for a hilarious, magical adventure with something for all the family.
